Reality

Often, advice from writers is to write about what you know! Observe the world around you. How would you write about it?

Task:

Write about you think is the biggest problem in the-world and how it impacts us every day. You could this by using any of the following creative witing ideas:

Write an article

Fictionalise it and write a story

Compose some song lyrics

Write a diary entry

Do you have a book recommendation?

just Email it to c.symons@plume.essex.sch.uk with the title and brief review about what makes it so good and you could find it published in the next LAIC newsletter!

Don't forget you can still access Accelerated Reader from home for all your quizzes. Simply go to the school website and click the Renaissance button at the top of the page. Log in using your usual log in and password.

No Ballet shoes in Syria
By Catherine Burton

Aya is eleven years old and has just arrived in Britain with her mum and baby brother, seeking asylum from war in Syria. When Aya stumbles across a local ballet class, the formidable dance teacher spots her exceptional talent and believes that Aya has the potential to earn a prestigious ballet scholarship. But at the same time, Aya and her family must fight to be allowed to remain in the country, to make a home for themselves and to find Aya's father - separated from the rest of the family during the journey from Syria. With beautiful, captivating writing, wonderfully authentic ballet detail, and an important message championing the rights of refugees, this is classic storytelling - filled with warmth, hope and humanity.

The Ballad of Songbirds and Snakes
By Suzanne Collins

Prequel to Hunger Games Trilogy

Ambition will fuel him. Competition will drive him. But power has its price. It is the morning of the reaping that will kick off the tenth annual Hunger Games. In the Capitol, eighteen-year-old Coriolanus Snow is preparing for his one shot at glory as a mentor in the Games. The once-mighty house of Snow has fallen on hard times, its fate hanging on the slender chance that Coriolanus will be able to out charm, outwit, and outmanoeuvre his fellow students to mentor the winning tribute.

The odds are against him. He's been given the humiliating assignment of mentoring the female tribute from District 12, the lowest of the low. Their fates are now completely intertwined — every choice Coriolanus makes could lead to favour or failure, triumph or ruin. Inside the arena, it will be a fight to the death. Outside the arena, Coriolanus starts to feel for his doomed tribute... and must weigh his need to follow the rules against his desire to survive no matter what it takes.
