

Plume Academy LAIC Newsletter 13.04.20

LAIC Information

LAIC supervisor

Mrs Symons

LAIC assistants

Mrs Gaskin

Mrs Rowland

Mrs Sherwin

Mrs Walpole-Lawson

Twitter

@PAL_Librarian

Activity of the day

If stuck in Quarantine for the next
3 weeks,
And you can have one character
From any book to be with you,
who would it be?
And from which book?
And why?

Submit your answers to
c.symons @plume.essex.sch.uk

Don't forget you can still access Accelerated Reader from home for all your quizzes. Simply go to the school website and click the Renaissance button at the top of the page. Log in using your usual log in and password.

Do you have a book recommendation?

just Email it to
c.symons@plume.essex.sch.uk
with the title and brief review about what makes it so good and you could find it published in the next LAIC newsletter!

Teen (Year 7 & 8)

Cressida Cowell reads How to Train Your Dragon: Prologue

To celebrate the launch of Book-Trust's new digital hub #BookTrustHomeTime, Cressida Cowell will be reading aloud a chapter a day from How to Train Your Dragon.

Watch Cressida's videos every day by visiting this link:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DyUNZa7_Gjo

Book Recommendations

Go visit the Great Wall of China! Just go to

<https://www.thechinaguide.com/destination/great-wall-of-china> and enjoy it virtually!

"A library is a place vibrating with ideas" Nancy Kunhardt Lodge

The Plume Literary Loo Roll Challenge!

Dear Plume Family

The English Department of Plume would like to set you a creative challenge for the Easter holidays. There is a prize!

We would like to get as many of you involved as possible, from Year 7 to Year 13, teachers, support staff, parents and siblings, Mr Wakefield!

Did I mention there would be a prize? Read on:

The Equipment

It is quite simple. All you need is an empty loo roll, some felt pens, crayons, pencils or paints - maybe some creative scraps of paper or fabric etc, scissors, glue or cellotape - be creative and use what you can find in the house only! Though please do get permission from an adult before using anything that does not belong to you.

The Task

We would like you to create your own literary character on a loo roll please and then tweet a picture of your creation and the character it is to the Plume Family via Mr Wakefield's twitter account.

I don't have twitter - what can I do?

If you don't have twitter that's fine - you can send your image to myself by reply to this email. If you wish me to tweet it to Mr Wakefield for you I can do this but you must make this request in the email and please let me know if you wish to remain anonymous (do not want your name used in the tweet.)

When is the deadline?

Please submit your Literary Loo Roll by Monday, April 20th. All Literary Loo Rolls, submitted by twitter or email, will be considered for the prize by the English Key Stage Co-ordinators Miss Cummins, Miss Kennedy and Miss Walls. The winners will be announced the following week.

Attached are some images of examples to give you an idea of what we are looking for. Many thanks to @MrsDuffyEnglish and @LouiseClazey on twitter for the idea.

We want you to have some fun with this and we're really excited to see your results. The English Department will be leading the way - I hope.

Have an eggsciting Easter and let the creativity begin!

Kind regards

The English Department