Flora Segunda of Crackpot Hall

By Ysabeau Wilce

Flora Segunda should know better than to take shortcuts in her family home, Crackpot Hall. Ever since her mother banished the magickal butler years earlier, Crackpot's rooms move about at random. Or at least some do - Flora's never figured out how big her own House really is. But everything changes on the day Flora, late for school, decides to take a shortcut by way of Crackpot's unpredictable Elevator. BIG mistake..

Alice's Day

3rd Jul 2021

Annual celebration of the much loved classic children's book Alice's Adventures in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll. If you were lucky enough to be Oxford at the weekend you might have seen some of the celebrations for Alice's day but if not you can still join in the fun by going to the link below and taking part in the on-line activities which range from mirror writing to making your own Chess piece hat!

How it all started

One afternoon on 4 July 1862, Charles Dodgson, took 10 year old Alice Liddell and her sisters on a boating picnic up the river Thames from Folly Bridge in Oxford. To entertain the girls he told them about a little girl; sitting bored on a riverbank, who finds herself tumbling down a rabbit hole into a topsy - turvy world called Wonderland. Alice loved the story so much she begged him to write it down, the result was the handwritten manuscript Alice's Adventures under ground. The follow year the manuscript was published as Alice's Adventures in Wonderland under the pen name Lewis Carroll.
