Signed:..... Assistant Vice Principal/Director of College Dated:.....

Any award made under this Trust is conditional upon your being offered and accepting a place at University or College. If you have not been offered a place at the time of applying, your application will still be considered, but any award will not be paid until you have confirmed that you have been offered and accepted a place. (This does not apply to pupils continuing education at Plume Academy.) Trustees have an absolute discretion as to whether to make an award or not to any applicant.

Closing date for receipt of applications – FRIDAY 27th September 2019

This form must be returned to Mrs Demes in the College Office labelled “Plume Educational Trust”

Please note: Students wishing to make an application to Plume Trust for a second/third time will need to collect an application form from either the College Office or Reception, as forms are not automatically sent out to applicants.
